

Carl Zeiss AG

Carl-Zeiss-Strasse 22
73447 Oberkochen
Germany

Susan-Stefanie Breitkopf

Member of the Executive Board of the ZEISS Group,
Chief Transformation Officer

Susan-Stefanie Breitkopf has been Chief Transformation Officer at the ZEISS Group since 2022. She has responsibility for Corporate Projects, Digital Innovation, Human Resources, Information Technology & Information Security, Management System, Operational Excellence, Shared Procurement & Logistic Services, Transformation Office, and US Shared Services. She is also Director of Labour Relations at Carl Zeiss AG.

Susan-Stefanie Breitkopf was born in 1968 in Hamburg. She studied law at the University of Hamburg and completed her legal training at the Regional Appellate Court in Hamm. She has specialized in labor law since 2001.

Milestones in her career

- 2022 Appointment to the Executive Board of the ZEISS Group
- 2021 Joined ZEISS as Head of Corporate Human Resources
- 2020 Managing Director, CHRO and HR Director at Currenta GmbH & Co. OHG, Leverkusen
- 2020 Head of Crisis Management Group Covid-19, Head of Corporate Development & Regulatory Affairs at Currenta GmbH & Co. OHG
- 2017 Head of Human Resources at Currenta GmbH & Co. OHG
- 2015 Head of Labor Relations EMEA and Latin America at Covestro AG, Leverkusen
- 2012 Head of several global and regional strategic projects, Head of Change Management for the Global Occupational Safety Program at Lanxess AG, Köln
- 2008 Global Senior Business Partner, responsible for Rubber Business Units at Lanxess AG
- 2004 Head of Global Strategy & Policies and attorney specializing in labor law at Lanxess AG
- 1999 Owner of a law firm specializing in labor law in Dortmund